THE HARRISON HOMES

(founded in 1869)

OVER A CENTURY OF SERVICE TO THE ELDERLY

This Charity owes its origin entirely to voluntary effort which is still a feature of its activities. Homes are provided for the elderly in need. The residents by personally furnishing a separate room retain links with their past. They enjoy complete independence but with the benefit of a community life and of nursing and caretaking services. When unable to care for themselves they may be looked after in our own Rest Home which has accommodation for 20. As a Centenary effort work has been completed to improve and extend blocks of old houses. Funds for these projects costing £500,000, ever mounting general costs and for the purchase of additional houses are urgently needed.

Further particulars may be obtained from:

Methodist Homes for the Aged

More and more generous people, wishing to give thanks for serenity and peace-of-mind in their later years, find fulfilment in remembering us in their Will. The legacies we receive make it possible for us to plan new Homes and to provide comfort and security for many who would otherwise be doomed to a lonely old-age. The General Secretary will be pleased to send you, on request, a personal copy of our legal portfolio for use when advising clients. We will be very grateful for your co-operation.

Give to the JWB. Your money will go to a good home.

Rubens & Shine House, Ballards Lane, London

We run another 23 residential homes and blocks of flats like this for elderly Jews.

Your donation helps us make them feel more like home than an institution.

After all, an old person has earned the right to a little comfort in their old age.

It costs over £900,000 to do our work. Imagine the cost of buying new lino and carpeting for our homes and flats. Bedding, cutlery, redecoration. Not to mention all the special equipment and staff wages.

We also need money for our day centres and social clubs. Our convalescent home, social welfare work and rehabilitation scheme.

Last year we helped one in ten of the Jewish families in London and the South East.

Please help us do the same this year.

For information regarding donations, legacies and covenants contact: Mr. A. I. Kraus, Jewish Welfare Board, 74a Charlotte Street, London, W1P 2AH 01-636 1644

Properties of generosity

This Society
now owns over 300 flats,
houses and bungalows for supernumerary
Ministers, or their widows, to rent during their retirement . . . but many more are needed

The Officers of the Methodist Ministers Housing Society gratefully acknowledge the support which has provided the houses, the money to purchase property, or land on which architect-designed bungalows have been built. Only when six hundred dwellings are available will it be possible to meet the needs of all the Methodist Ministers who retire year by year.

As the Society's resources are insufficient for the task, the Officers appeal for your co-operation in advising your clients of these facts. Every penny contributed by subscription or legacy is used to provide accommodation.

Secretary D. G. Haines, FCA or the
